Volume 14, Issue 1

When you hear the word “Emmaus,” what is the first thing that pops into your mind? To me Emmaus is the awesome opportunity to share testimonies and to be so intimate with God that He allows testimonies to develop during this incredible 72 hours. The 15 Talks shared on the “Walk” allow us the opportunity to be a witness of the love, grace, and power of the Lord in our lives.

Why would HE choose a sinner, such as me, to bear His name? I think it is because He said, “I can do anything, and I will prove it through this one.” He has given us a story to tell and we should be willing to share this with anyone who is willing to listen. Isn’t that why He gives us stories – to tell – and to give HIM the honor and glory? I can honestly say that He has pulled me from the murky waters and set my feet on higher ground. Isn’t that worth telling?

The testimonies which develop during this 72 hour weekend are shared through the Pilgrims’ voices during the Closing hour. We think the 15 Talks are awesome – just sit and listen carefully to the Pilgrims’ closing testimonies – WOW! There is no doubt God’s presence was all over that weekend. Tears of joy flow as the Pilgrims share about the walls that came down, the healing that has begun, the love they never knew, and the friendships that have developed and will always be remembered. They profess before everyone what they intend to do with what God has given to them.

God is incredible and it is time to share your story with someone. You don’t have to be confined for 72 hours to share this wonderful story – tell it – shout it – LIVE it! God’s merciful love will become real to others when we share what HE has done for you and me! God IS good – all the time!

Praising my Savior,

Terri Flores

The teams are ready to go. We just need your caterpillars. What a WONDERFUL beginning of 2010 for a young woman or man! To start the year basking in the love of Jesus Christ!

Please get your applications in as soon as possible. We have plenty of scholarships available. We ask for your prayers for the teams and for the caterpillars. Please pray for God to place a name on your heart of a young person that you could bless by sending them on one of these Journeys.

We look forward to seeing you at Send-Off, Candlelight, and Closing!
